

REGULATIONS
for the International College
Fra Luigi Chmel

Rome – 2020

The constitution of the International College Fra Luigi Chmel of the Order of the Discalced Augustinians, situated in Via del Corso, 45 – 00186, at Rome (Italy), was approved by the General Definitory on October 17, 2007 following a specific request emerged from the meeting of the 11-12 June, 2007 among the members of the General Curia, the Superiors of the Provincia Madonna del Buon Consiglio d'Italia, of the Provincia Santa Rita de Cássia do Brasil and of the Delegation of the Philippines.

The International College wants to respond to some needs and priorities present in the Order and bear the name of Fra Luigi Chmel who deserves to be remembered as an example of the Discalced Augustinian students. The International College is directly dependent on the Central Authority (cf. proposition of approval October 17, 2007).

This Regulation has been updated on November 19, 2020 (Prot. Reg. V; fol. 219/10) following the meeting of the Board of Directors held in Rome on November 4, 2020.

Chapter 1 Objectives

The International College proposes:

- a) To welcome professed members of the Order in order to foster knowledge and communion among religious from various regions and to provide continuity for their spiritual and cultural formation, with particular attention to the spirituality, charism and history of the Discalced Augustinians.
- b) To prepare the religious to collaborate, with full availability to the projects and initiatives of the Order (missions, seminaries, apostolic activities, special tasks and others).
