Prot. Reg. V; fol. 233/05

To all the members of the Order.

Subject: Presentation of the Liturgical Calendar 2023.

I am pleased to present to you the Liturgical Calendar 2023, set up on the basis of the civil one, starting from January to December. It is a useful and important tool for marking the liturgical-temporal rhythm of our days and activities.

The year 2023 promises to be a year full of important events for the life of the Church (the conclusion of the Synod on Synodality in the month of October) and of our Order which will celebrate the LXXX General Chapter in Cebu City in the Philippines.

This translated Liturgical Calendar, with due adaptations and enrichments, into Portuguese and Italian, will be an effective tool for increasing synodality and communion in the Order, with the certainty that every day we will have valid reasons to rejoice and celebrate together, even if geographically distant.

Rome, August 31, 2022.

Fr. Diones Rafael PAGANOTTO
Secretary General

Fr. Doriano CETERONI
Prior General

Preamble 1

MONTHLY PRAYER INTENTIONS FOR OUR ORDER

January: We pray for all the Affiliates of the Order.

February: We pray for the Religious of the Italian Province.

March: We pray for the Religious of the Brazilian Province.

April: We pray for the Religious of the Philippine Province.

May: We pray that the Marian and Ritian devotion stimulate the faithful to a more authentic Christian life.

June: We pray for the celebration of the LXXX General Chapter, to be celebrated in Cebu City, Philippines.

July: We pray for the young people in formation: aspirants, postulants, novices and professed, that they may open themselves to the action of the Holy Spirit.

August: We pray that the Lord will send more and holy workers to His vineyard.

September: We pray for the religious engaged in the educational mission in the schools and formation houses of the Order.

October: We pray for the religious engaged in the mission, in the service of the Order and outside their homeland.

November: We pray for all our deceased loved ones: confreres, family, friends and collaborators.

December: We pray for the members of the Secular Fraternities.

PLENARY INDULGENCE

The Members of the Order can benefit the Plenary Indulgence under the usual conditions and renew, at least privately, the promise to faithfully observe the commitments of their state of life on the following occasions:

- Our Mother of Consolation;
- St. Joseph, Patron of the Order;
- Our Holy Father Augustine;
- St. Monica;
- Conversion of Our Holy Father Augustine;
- St. Rita of Cascia;
- St. Nicholas of Tolentino;
- All Saints of the Order;
- Anniversary of the Reform;
- Celebration of the General Chapter.

The Members of a Community:

- Patron/Patroness of the House;
- Saints or Blessed whose body or relic is preserved in the House or Church;
- On the occasion of the Canonical Visitation.

To Single Members:

- On the day of the Investiture;
- On the day of the Simple Profession;
- On the day of the Solemn Profession;
- On the Jubilee anniversary of Profession and/or Ordination (25th; 50th; 60th; 75th).

FASTING AND ABSTINENCE

The Can. 1249 indicates that: “the divine law binds all the Christian faithful to do penance each in his or her own way. In order for all to be united among themselves by some common observance of penance, however, penitential days are prescribed on which the Christian faithful devote themselves in a special way to prayer, perform works of piety and charity, and deny themselves by fulfilling their own obligations more faithfully [...]”.

The no. 39 of the Directory adds: “a) Fasting and abstinence from meat on all Fridays of the year and in the eves of St. Joseph (March 19), the Annunciation of the Lord (March 25), the Conversion of our Holy Father Augustine (April 24), the Mother of Consolation (September 4), the Immaculate Conception (December 8); b) Abstinence from meat on all Saturdays of Advent and Lent”, as a peculiar characteristic of a mendicant Order.

Paul VI makes the following distinction in the Apostolic Constitution Paenitemini (February 17, 1966), to which particular personal and health situations make exceptions:

- Fast: it is the obligation to have a single complete meal during the day, reducing the amount of food in the morning and in the evening; all adults up to the age of sixty are required (Can. 1252).
- Abstinence: it is the prohibition of the use of meat in meals; all those who have completed fourteen years are required (Can. 1252).

Proclamation of the day of Easter

After the reading of the Gospel, the announcement of Easter and movable Feasts is proclaimed:

Dear brothers and sisters, the glory of the Lord has shone upon us, and shall ever be manifest among us, until the day of his return. Through the rhythms of times and seasons let us celebrate the mysteries of salvation.

Let us recall the year's culmination, the Easter Triduum of the Lord: his last supper, his crucifixion, his burial, and his rising celebrated between the evening of the 6th of April and the evening of the 9th of April.

Each Easter – as on each Sunday – the Holy Church makes present the great and saving deed by which Christ has forever conquered sin and death.

From Easter are reckoned all the days we keep holy: Ash Wednesday, the beginning of Lent, will occur on the 22nd of February; the Ascension of the Lord will be commemorated on the 18th of May; Pentecost, the joyful conclusion of the Easter Season, will be celebrated on the 28th of May. The 1st Sunday of Advent, on the 3rd of December.

Likewise, the pilgrim Church proclaims the Passover of Christ in the feasts of the holy Mother of God, in the feasts of the Apostles and Saints, and in the commemoration of the faithful departed.

To Jesus Christ, who was, who is, and who is to come, Lord of time and history, be endless praise, forever and ever. Amen.

Ordinary

Time

Sunday and Special Days Lectionary:	Year A (St. Mathew).
Weekday lectionary:	Odd year.
Lit. Hours:	Volume III.
Liturgical color:	Green.

From January 10 (Tuesday after the Baptism of the Lord) until February 21 (Tuesday before Ash Wednesday) is the first part of the O.T.

Beyond the times that have their own characteristics, in the O.T. there are thirty-three or thirty-four weeks during the course of the year, which are intended not to celebrate a particular aspect of the mystery of Christ, but in which this mystery is rather revered in its entirety, especially on Sundays.

Indications for Masses and prayers for various needs (Votives and Marian)

On weekdays in O.T. it is advisable to use the Mass forms for the various needs, votives and of the B.V.M.

Safeguarding the norms for the liturgical year, for the general calendar and for the Augustinian calendar, the liturgical texts, suggested for weekdays, agree with the biblical topic of the weekday lectionary, guaranteeing a thematic connection between the altar of the Word of God and the altar of the Body of Christ.

Indications for the Presentation of the Lord

The faithful go to meet the Lord carrying lighted candles and sing to him together with Simeon who recognized him as Christ the Lord Light to enlighten the people.

To remember the mystery of this day, the blessing of candles is performed which can be combined with the procession or a solemn entrance, according to the indications of the Missal.

The faithful gather in a minor church or some other suitable place outside the church to which the procession is headed; they hold the lighted candles in their hands already at the beginning of the ritual. As the procession enters the church, the introit of the Mass is sung, after which, leaving out the initial rites, it continues with the Gl.

Blessing of candles

O God most powerful and most kind, Who didst create all the different things in the world by the Word alone, and Whose will it was that this Word by Which all things were made should become incarnate for the remaking of mankind; Thou Who art great and limitless, worthy of reverence and praise, the worker of wonders; for Whose sake the glorious Martyr and Bishop, St. Blaise, joyfully gained the palm of martyrdom, never shrinking from any kind of torture in confessing his faith in Thee; Thou Who didst give to him, amongst other gifts, the prerogative of curing by Thy power every ailment of men's throats; humbly we beg Thee in Thy majesty not to look upon our guilt, but, pleased by his merits and prayers, in Thine awe-inspiring kindness, to bless this wax created by Thee and to sanctify it, pouring into it Thy grace; so that all who in good faith shall have their throats touched by this wax may be freed from every ailment of their throats through the merit of his suffering, and, in good health and spirits, may give thanks to Thee in Thy holy Church and praise Thy glorious name, which is blessed for ever and ever. Through our Lord, Jesus Christ, Thy Son, Who with Thee lives and reigns, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, world without end.

Amen.

The candles are sprinkled with holy water.

Throat blessing

Through the intercession of St. Blaise, bishop and martyr, may God deliver you from every disease of the throat and from every illness: In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

Amen.

Lenten

Season

Sunday and Special Days Lectionary: Year A (St. Matthew).

Weekday Lectionary: Strong time (Lent).

Lit. Hours: Volume II.

Liturgical color: Violet.

The Lent Season has the purpose of preparing Easter: the Lenten liturgy guides both the catechumens, through the different degrees of Christian initiation, and the faithful, through the remembrance of Baptism and Penitence.

Indications for Lent

The weekdays of the Lent Season, from Ash Wednesday until the Saturday before Palm Sunday, prevail over the memorials of the Saints, which therefore can only be celebrated in a reduced form and can be celebrated as follows:

- a) In the Office of Readings, after the reading of the Fathers from the Proper of the Time with its responsory, the hagiographic reading of the current memorial with its responsory and the prayer of the Saint can be added.
- b) After the prayer, omitting the conclusion, the antiphon and the prayer of the Saint can be added to Lauds and Vespers.
- c) In the Mass of the day, the collection of the weekday can be replaced with that of the Saint marked in the calendar. Everything else is of the weekday.

The Alleluia is omitted in the Mass and in the Liturgy of the Hours.

Gloria is said only on Solemnities, feasts and other special celebrations.

Lit. Hours 4th Wk.

Fasting and Abstinence (Can. 1251).

The penitential act is omitted, because it is replaced by the rite of imposition of ashes.

The blessing of the ashes occurs after the homily, during the imposition of ashes it is said:
“Repent, and believe in the Gospel”
» “Remember that you are dust, and to dust you shall return”.

The blessing and the imposition of ashes can also be done without Mass; in this case the rite is prefaced with the Liturgy of the Word and the collection.

Remember the traditional spiritual challenge of Lent (Rit., nos. 256-260).

Indications for Palm Sunday

Palm Sunday, in which the Church begins the celebration of the mystery of her dead, buried and risen Lord, joins together the royal triumph of Christ and the announcement of his glorious Passion.

The Lord's entry into Jerusalem is commemorated with the solemn procession, with which the faithful, imitating the acclamations of the Jews, go to meet the Lord at the hymn of the Hosanna.

The procession is to be done only one before the Mass with greater participation of the people, or in the evening hours of Saturday or Sunday.

. APRIL .

The faithful gather in a minor church or other suitable place outside the church to which the procession is headed. The faithful participate in this procession singing and carrying palm branches or other trees in their hands. The priest and the ministers precede the people, also carrying palms.

The palms are blessed to be carried in procession. Kept at home, they recall the victory of Christ celebrated on this day with the procession.

To commemorate the Lord's entry into Jerusalem, in addition to the solemn procession, the Missal proposes two other forms.

a) The first is the solemn introit that takes place when the procession cannot be made outside the church. It can be repeated before another Mass celebrated with great competition from the people.

b) The second form is the simple introit and is done at the beginning of the other Masses.

After the procession or the solemn entrance, the sign of the cross is omitted, the penitential act and the sprinkling of holy water that is used to do before Mass, and the collection is said immediately. The Mass then continues as usual.

The spiritual good of the faithful requires that the history of the Passion be read in its entirety and that the Lectionaries that precede it are not omitted. After the reading of the Passion, the homily, even if brief, should not be omitted.

Indications for Holy Week

In Holy Week the Church celebrates the mysteries of salvation brought to completion by Christ in the last days of his life, beginning with his messianic entry into Jerusalem until his passion and resurrection.

Lent also includes Holy Thursday. From the evening Mass of the Lord's Supper begins the Easter Triduum, which continues on the Friday of the Passion and on Holy Saturday which has its center in the Easter Vigil.

It is good to dedicate the days of this Wk. to the celebration of confessions.

The rites of Holy Wk. can be celebrated in all churches and oratories. However, it is good that in non-parochial churches and oratories they are celebrated only if an adequate number of faithful participate, if there is an adequate number of ministers and the possibility of singing at least some part of the rite. Otherwise, it is fitting that these celebrations be omitted and the faithful gather together in the parish churches and in the other larger churches.

The Lent Season ends.

The Easter Triduum begins.

Indications for the Easter Triduum

The Easter Triduum of the Lord's Passion and Resurrection shines at the apex of your liturgical year.

The celebration of the Easter Triduum makes present and realizes the mystery of Easter, that is, the passage of the Lord from this world to the Father.

The celebrations of the sacred Triduum should only take place where they can be carried out with dignity and decorum.

It is very convenient for small religious communities to participate and animate the assembly of the faithful in major churches.

Indications for Holy Thursday

If the E.P. 1 is used, attention should be paid to the parts proper to this celebration (communicantes) which for convenience are reported in the Missal in the context of the celebration itself.

The faithful are invited to stay in church for an adequate space of time to worship the Most Holy Sacrament placed at the altar of reposition. The rules prohibit the use of the monstrance, the pyx is placed in a simple and dignified place.

Fr. Antônio Carlos RIBEIRO (bra 2002);
Fr. Francisco FERREIRA (bra 2002);
Fr. Laércio SANSÃO (bra 2002).

Indications for the Easter Vigil

By very ancient tradition, this night is the night of Vigil in honor of the Lord, destined to celebrate the holy night in which Christ is risen, and is considered as the mother of all holy vigils. In fact, in it the Church awaits the resurrection of the Lord and celebrates it with the sacraments of Christian initiation.

The entire celebration of the Easter Vigil takes place at night; it must therefore either begin after the beginning of the night or end before dawn on Sunday. The whole celebration must take place in such a way as to preserve its nature as a prolonged vigil.

The celebration of Mass alone is not permitted without the rites of the Easter Vigil.

. APRIL .

The Vigil takes place in this way: after the skylight and the Easter preconio (first part of this Vigil), the Church meditates on the wonders performed by the Lord for his people from the beginning (second part or liturgy of the Word), up to the moment in which, with her new members regenerated in Baptism (third part), she is invited to the table that the Lord has prepared for his people, as a memorial of his death and resurrection, awaiting his coming (fourth part).

The whole Easter Vigil is made up of symbols and rites, which must be performed with such breadth and dignity that the faithful can truly understand their meaning, also suggested by the monitions and prayers. Above all it is necessary that the faithful are guided with brief admonitions to understand the topological meaning of the Old Testament readings proposed in the Vigil.

As far as possible, prepare outside the church, in a suitable place, a fire, the flame of which is such as to truly dispel the darkness and illuminate the night.

The paschal candle, for the truth of the sign, is entirely of wax, unique, of considerable size, every new year: it must in fact recall the figure of Christ, the true light that illuminates the world.

The Easter preconio can be announced, out of necessity, even by a cantor who is not a deacon, who, however, does not receive the blessing from the celebrant and omits the second part of the invitation "And you, dear brothers..." and the greeting "The Lord be with you".

From the series of biblical readings of the Old Testament, at least three should be read, if necessary, at least two; never omit reading the book of Exodus (3rd reading).

The baptismal liturgy of the Easter Vigil reaches its fullness when the Christian initiation of adults or at least the baptism of children is celebrated. However, even if baptism is not celebrated, the blessing of baptismal water is done in parish churches; where there is not even a font to bless, the memorial of baptism should be made with the blessing of the water, with which the people sprinkle after the renewal of baptismal promises.

Incense can be used at the proclamation of the Gospel, but candles are not worn.

It is desirable that the fullness of the Eucharistic sign be reached with the communion of the Easter Vigil.

Easter

Season

Sunday and Special Days Lectionary:	Year A (St. Matthew).
weekday Lectionary:	Strong times (Easter).
Liturgy of the Hours:	Volume II.
Liturgical color:	White.

The fifty days that follow one another from Easter Sunday to Pentecost Sunday are celebrated in exultation and joy as a single day of celebration, indeed as the great Sunday. These are the days in which, in a very special way, the Alleluia is sung.

Indications for the Easter Season

Mass on Easter day should be celebrated with great solemnity. In it, instead of the penitential act, the blessed water is sprinkled during the Vigil, to recall the memorial of the baptism.

The paschal candle, to be placed at the ambo or near the altar, should be lit in all the major more solemn liturgical celebrations of this time until Pentecost Sunday.

Today it went through the entire octave, at Compline the antiphon "This is the day" is said, instead of the short responsory.

In place of the Angelus Domini, during your Easter Season, the antiphon Regina Coeli is recited.

Indications for Pentecost

The fifty-day period of Easter Season ends with Pentecost Sunday, in which the gift of the Holy Spirit to the Apostles is commemorated, the beginnings of the Church and the beginning of her mission to all peoples.

It is good to celebrate the Vigil Mass in a protracted form, with the readings and prayers proposed.

This Mass has a character of more intense prayer following the example of the Apostles and disciples united in prayer, awaiting the outpouring of the Holy Spirit.

Ordinary

Time

Sunday and Special Days Lectionary: Year A (St. Mathew).

Weekday lectionary: Odd year.

Lit. Hours: Volumes III and IV.

Liturgical color: Green.

From May 29 (B.V.M. Mother of the Church) until December 2 (Saturday of the 34th Wk. in O.T.) is the second part of the O.T.

Indications for Masses and prayers for various needs (votive and Marian)

On weekdays in O.T. it is advisable to use the Mass forms for the various needs, votive and of the B.V.M.

Safeguarding the norms for the liturgical year, for the general calendar and for the Augustinian calendar, the liturgical texts, suggested for weekdays, agree with the biblical topic of the weekday lectionary, guaranteeing a thematic connection between the altar of the Word of God and the altar of the Body of Christ.

Season

Sunday and Special Days Lectionary: Year B (St. Mark).

Weekday lectionary: Strong times (Advent).

Lit. Hours: Volume I.

Liturgical color: Violet.

The Advent Season has a double characteristic: it is a time of preparation for the solemnity of Christmas, in which the first coming of the Son of God among men is remembered, and it is the time in which, through this remembrance, the spirit is guided to the waiting for the second coming of Christ at the end of time.

Indications for the Advent season

Up to and including December 16, in the Sunday and weekday Office, the antiphon at the invocation, the hymns at all the Hours, the antiphon at the Middle Hour, are proper to the Time and are found, in the book of the Liturgy of the Hours, at the beginning of the "proper of Time". On Sundays the Te Deum is said.

Christmas

Season

Sunday and Special Days Lectionary:	Year B (St. Mark).
weekday lectionary:	Strong times (Christmas).
Lit. Hours:	Volume I.
Liturgical color:	White.

After the annual re-enactment of the paschal mystery, the Church has nothing more sacred than the celebration of the Lord's Birth and its first manifestations.

Directions for Christmas season

From the first Vespers of Christmas to the first Vespers of the Epiphany except, when it is not stated otherwise, the antiphon at the invitation, the hymns at all the Hours, the antiphon at the Middle Hour, are proper to the time and are found after December 24.

Christmas Eve Mass cannot be anticipated to the evening or evening hours (as for the Easter Vigil), but must be celebrated at midnight. Even in places where it is permitted to fulfill the precept the previous evening, in the afternoon of the 24th neither the Mass of Christmas Day nor that of the night is celebrated, but that of Vigil.

On Christmas Day each priest can celebrate or concelebrate three Masses, but not consecutively, and at the times corresponding to the three forms.

During the octave of Christmas the memories of the Saints are celebrated according to when indicated for the season of Advent.

Masses are not permitted during Christmas holidays

. DECEMBER .

votives of devotion, unless a pastoral utility requires it. Daily masses for the dead are prohibited. In addition to the Masses of the recurring Memoirs, those of the Saints enrolled in the Martyrology of that Day are permitted.
